

Harford County shall have concurrent jurisdiction over said offenses by indictment of the grand jury.

412. Constables in said county shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for the particular services rendered by them under the preceding section; and the said justices shall be entitled to charge for their respective services in said criminal cases the following fees: For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents; for summoning all the witnesses on both sides in any case, fifty cents; for each trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizance in each case reported to the Circuit Court, twenty-five cents each; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents.

413. Constables of Harford County be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to execute commitments issued by justices of the peace of Harford County, committing persons to the House of Correction and other State institutions, and to convey and deliver the person or persons so committed to said institutions; and shall receive for said services from the County Commissioners of said county to be levied annually by them, the sum of ten dollars and cost of transportation.

414. Whenever any of said constables shall make an arrest under a State warrant and bring the prisoner before a justice of the peace of the county, he shall be allowed and receive, in addition to the seventy-five cents now allowed by law for serving said warrant, five cents per mile in excess of five miles, for every mile he may have to travel in the performance of said service, and the actual necessary traveling expenses of each prisoner, and whenever he shall attend a regular hearing or trial of said prisoner before the justice of the peace before whom the prisoner is brought on said warrant, he shall be allowed and receive for such attendance the sum of fifty cents, the same to be paid by the County Commissioners of said county, to be annually levied by them.

415. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice shall be accounted for and wholly paid, without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commis-
